

Global Mental Health and Psychosocial Support Conference

Monday 5th June
Time	Room 1: G.73 (capacity = 130)	Room 2: G.79 (capacity = 120)	Room 3: 1.16 (capacity = 80)
9.30-9.45	Welcome to the conference: Alison Beck (Head of Psychology and Psychotherapy) & Dr Matthew Patrick (Chief Executive, South London & Maudsley NHS)			Dr
9.45-10.30	Reverse Innovation & Mutual Learning Invited speaker Ncazelo Ncube (Narrative therapist & Psychosocial Specialist, developer of the Tree of Life approach and founder of PHOLA, South Africa) - Tree of Life counselling methodology - an offering from Africa	Models of Partnership Invited speaker Andrew Jones (THET) - Partnering for Impact	Helping the Helpers Symposium James Rubin (KCL) - Stressors and uplifting factors in crisis work overseas - Fukushima & Ebola Elaine Hunter (SLaM) - Evaluation of a psychological support service for Sierra Leonean staff working in Ebola Treatment Centres Idit Albert (SLaM) - A study of the challenges that faced NHS medics responding to the Ebola Crisis and the evaluation of a psychological support service provided for their care
	Symposium Angela Byrne (ELFT) - The Tree of Life: transforming our work with communities in East London Isabella Ekdawi & Julie Fraser (SLaM) - Using the tree of life to promote equality & diversity in SLaM: We're the same, but different	Symposium Tracey Power & Jonathan Rolfe (Maudsley International) - Capacity Building Through Mental Health and Wellbeing Consultancy Helen Thompson (KSLP) - Working in partnership: Lessons from the roll-out of district mental health units in Sierra Leone	Symposium Jon Barden (DfID) - Better to burn out than to fade away? - Reflections from 25 years on the humanitarian front line Fiona Dunkley (Interhealth) - Crisis incident trends for humanitarian aid workers
11.15-11.30	BREAK
11.30-12.15	Symposium Hamdi Issa (Imperial College London) - Useful theoretical perspectives for the study of Reverse Innovation Kavian Kulsabanathan (Imperial College London) - Do International Health Partnerships contribute to Reverse Innovation? A mixed methods study of THET-supported Matthew Harris (Imperial College London) - Measuring explicit bias towards low-income country research: a randomized, controlled crossover experiment in English clinicians	Panel discussion: How can we work together to make sure that partnership and collaboration are reality not rhetoric?	Symposium Sarah Davidson (British Red Cross) & Aideen Lucey (Aideen Lucy Consulting) - Enabling and Sustaining Support for Humanitarian Helpers Tony Redmond (UK Med) - The NHS response to Ebola - what happened when they got home?
	Panel discussion: Reverse innovation & mutual learning	Working with Trauma and in Conflict Situations Invited speaker Adeyinka Akinsulure-Smith (City University of New York) - Psychosocial support for youth in post conflict settings: The youth readiness intervention	Panel discussion: Helping the helpers
12.15-1.00	LUNCH
1.45-2.30	Interventions in Global Mental Health Invited speaker Melanie Abas (KCL) - Psychological therapy for mind and body: depression and HIV medication non-adherence in low-resource settings	Invited speaker Fathy Fiefel (Palestine Red Crescent) - Children and war: "It takes a village to raise a child"	Insights from the Field: NGO Work Invited speaker Chris Underhill (Basic Needs & mhNOW) - Cities for mental health: the need for action in the face of rapid urbanisation
	Invited speaker Etheldreda Nakimuli-Mpungu (Makarere University, Uganda) - Social, emotional and economic outcomes of treating depression with group support psychotherapy	Invited speaker Amani Chibashima Christian & Katy Robjant (Vivo International) - Using Narrative Exposure Therapy in the treatment of PTSD in victims of SGBV and former child soldiers in Eastern Democratic Republic of Congo	Symposium Vaughan Bell (SLaM, ex-MSF) - Armed conflict and mental health in Colombia: Reflections on work for a medical NGO Monica Mukerjee (Doctors of the World UK) - "I thought you all were spies": Building community awareness on mental health in eastern Ukraine
3.15-3.45	BREAK
3.45-4.30	Symposium Munyaradzi Madhombiro (University of Zimbabwe) - Intervention for alcohol use disorders in people living with HIV & Aids in Zimbabwe David Baillie & Grace Ryan (East London Butabika Link) - MORE Brain Gain: Evaluating the impact of Peer Support Work in Uganda Ross White (University of Liverpool) - Acceptance and Commitment Therapy in sub-saharan Africa	Symposium Ahmed Sewehli (Misrata Psychiatry Department) - Playing second fiddle in a war zone: Establishing a mental health service in Libya Tribute to Dr Chesmal Siriwardhana	Symposium Yotam Polizer (IsraAid) - "Disasters as opportunities" A unique approach for long term psychosocial support in disaster areas - case studies from the Ebola outbreak, the refugee crisis, the earthquake in Nepal and the Tsunami in Japan Ben Adams & Julian Eaton (CBM) - Promoting Inclusion and challenging abuse
	Panel discussion: Interventions in global mental health	Panel discussion: Working with trauma and in conflict situations	Panel discussion: Insights from the field: NGO Work
4.30-5.15

Global Mental Health and Psychosocial Support Conference

Tuesday 6th June
Time	Room 1: G.73 (capacity = 130)	Room 2: G.79 (capacity = 120)	Room 1.16 (capacity = 80)
9.30-10.15	The ethics & politics of global mental health Invited speaker Nimisha Patel (University of East London) - The mantra of do no harm: International healthcare responses to refugee people and human rights violations	Training & sustainability Invited speaker David Richards (University of Exeter Medical School) - Essential Principles for Worldwide Effective Psychological Therapies at Scale	Acceleration & scaling up
10.15-11.00	Symposium Derek Summerfield (SLaM) Brief critique of the basic assumptions of Global Mental Health Angela Byrne (ELFT) Why I chose to stop working internationally China Mills (Sheffield University) - Essential care beyond 'essential medicine': the psychopolitics of global mental health	Symposium Alyson Hall (East London Butabika Link) - Development of a university accredited advanced diploma in child and adolescent mental health: Training projects in Uganda 2012-16 Rosa Hoekstra (KCL) - Increasing awareness of developmental disorders in rural Ethiopia: The impact of brief mental health training for community health workers	Workshop: Chris Underhill (Basic Needs & mhNOW) - Models for acceleration and growth
11.00-11.30	BREAK
11.30-12.15	Panel discussion: Should we be doing global mental health at all? Chair - Nimisha Patel	Panel discussion: Training and sustainability Including Q&A with speakers	Helping the helpers Workshop Paul Wielgus (Potential Project UK) - Mindfulness for resilience, wellbeing & effectiveness
12.15-1.00	Keynote speaker: Lord Crisp (Chair of All Party Parliamentary Group on Global Health) - One World Health
1.00-1.45	LUNCH
1.45-2.30	Keynote speaker: Vikram Patel (Harvard Medical School) - Psychological treatments for the world: What rich countries can learn from the global south (via video link)
2.30-3.15	Reverse innovation & mutual learning Invited speaker David Baillie & Jennifer Lang (East London Butabika Link) - Volunteering at Butabika Recovery College, Uganda: Learning and challenges King's Sierra Leone Partnership Improving health at Home and Abroad: the benefits of volunteering overseas – Experiences from the King's Sierra Leone Partnership	Working with International and National Policy Symposium Peter Hughes (Chair of Volunteering & International Psychiatry Special Interest Group, WHO mhGAP Consultant) - Using mhGAP globally to strengthen health systems Rachel Jenkins (KCL and former Director of WHO Collaborating Centre 1997-2012) Supporting policy makers in low and middle income countries	Models of Partnerships Symposium Moses Mulimira (Co Founder - Uganda Diaspora Health Foundation/Co Chair East London Butabika Link) - Not international development but co-development: the role of diasporas in reducing global health disparities Amadu Timbo (SLaM) Working with UK diaspora to support Kissy Psychiatric Hospital, Sierra Leone Ade Adeyemi (The Kopfadayemi Fellowship) - Why are Diaspreneurs the answer?
3.15-3.45	BREAK
3.45-4.30	Interventions in Global Mental Health Invited speaker Graham Thornicroft (KCL) - Interventions to reduce stigma and discrimination in low and middle income countries	Panel discussion: Working with international and national policy	Panel discussion: Linking with the diaspora
4.30-5.15	Panel discussion (all speakers): Key learning points from the conference
5.15-5.30	Closing remarks: Professor Edward Byrne (KCL)		