

What Matters Most conference

Delivering patient-centred outcomes-based care

King's College Hospital
NHS Foundation Trust

An Academic Health Sciences Centre for London

Pioneering better health for all

19th to 23rd September 2022

Online-only conference

MONDAY

9am to 10:30am

Conference Introduction - King's BOLD strategy

Prof Clive Kay
Chief Executive Officer
King's College Hospital

Chair: Professor Will Bernal, Corporate Medical Director – Patient Outcomes, KCH

Keynote: Patient-centred outcomes-based healthcare – what do we mean? Why is it important?

Prof Jan Hazelzet –
Emeritus Professor Healthcare
Quality & Outcome, Erasmus
MC (Netherlands)

1pm to 2pm

Chair: Prof Will Bernal, Corporate Medical Director – Patient Outcomes, KCH

Key topic 1: Patient-centred outcomes-based healthcare – leading the way at KCH

Prof Irene Higginson and Dr
Mev Hocaoglu, Palliative Care
Outcomes Scale
Development team, Cicely
Saunders Institute of Palliative
Care, Rehabilitation and Policy

TUESDAY

9:30am to 11:30am

Chair: Prof Will Bernal, Key topic 2: How will digital transformation improve patient outcomes?

The role of the Apollo programme and digital transformation to drive improved patient outcomes

Dr Jack Barker, KCH and Chief
Clinical Information Officer, SE
London Integrated Care System

Using Big Data to improve patient outcomes

Prof James Teo, KCH Director of Data Science

Developing international data sets to drive improved outcomes – European Health Outcomes Observatory

David Hopkins, Director, King's Health Partners Institute for Diabetes, Endocrinology, and
Obesity; Diabetes Consultant KCH
Using national clinical audit data to drive improved outcomes
Omar Mustafa, Diabetes
Consultant, KCH

1pm to 2pm

Chair: Dr Jonty Heaversedge, Clinical Chair, SE London Integrated Care Board

Key topic 3: Population health outcomes

Shaun Danielli, Director of Population Health and Equalities,
SE London ICS & KHP
Dr Catherine Mbema – Director of Public Health, Lewisham
Ms Maria Higson – Director of ICS
Transformation and Delivery, SEL
ICB

WEDNESDAY

9am to 9:30am

Chair: Dr Caroline Elston, Site Medical Director, KCH

Local example 1: Measuring outcomes in KCH sleep clinic

Dr Kai Lee, Consultant in Respiratory Medicine, Lead for Sleep, and Ms Sara Chabi, Patient
Outcomes Project Manager

11am to 11:30am

Chair: Dr Caroline Elston

Local example 2: Measuring outcomes in Cystic Fibrosis at KCH

Dr Felicity Perrin, Consultant and Dr Rachel Massey-Chase, Clinical Psychologist - Adult Cystic Fibrosis
Service

12pm to 12:30pm

Chair: Dr Catriona Shaw, Consultant Nephrologist

Local example 3: Measuring outcomes for patients with chronic cough at KCH

Prof Surinder Birring, Consultant
Respiratory Physician and Ms
Grace Burfield, Patient Outcomes
Project Manager

1pm to 1:30pm

Chair: Dr Catriona Shaw

Local example 3: Combining clinical and patient-centred outcomes in orthopaedics

Mr Toby Colegate-Stone, Consultant
Orthopaedic Surgeon

THURSDAY

9am to 9:30am

Chair: Dr Caroline Elston

Local example 5: Measuring outcomes for patients with open leg fracture

Mr Ash Vasireddy, Consultant
Orthopaedic Surgeon

11am to 11:30am

Chair: Dr Caroline Elston

National example 1 – Embedding outcomes measurement in Wales

Dr Sally Lewis, Director of the Welsh Value in Health Centre and National Clinical Lead for Value-Based and Prudent
Healthcare, Wales

1pm to 2:30pm

Chair: Ms Funmi Onamusi, Director of Equality, Diversity & Inclusion

Key topic 4: Ensuring inclusivity in outcomes measurement

Prof Ray Chaudhuri, Research
Director and Asst. Medical Director
Dr Chris Gonde, BAME Network
Chair, and Ms Omatola Thomas,
KCH patient and trustee of Parkinson's Africa

FRIDAY

9am to 9:30am

Chair: Dr Leonie Penna, Chief Medical Officer, KCH

International example – Successes and lessons learned from the outcomes journey since 2014

Ms Linetta Koppert, Consultant
Surgical Oncologist, Erasmus MC,
Netherlands

11am to 12:30pm

Chair: Prof Matthew Hotopf, Vice Dean of Research at the Institute of Psychiatry Psychology and Neuroscience, KCL

Key topic 5: Person-centred outcomes - Mind & Body Collecting mental health outcomes in physical health settings

Dr Daniel O'Toole, Consultant
Psychologist, Head of Adult
Clinical Health Psychology, KCH
and Candice Ebelthite – IMPARTS
Project Manager, KHP Mind & Body
Programme

Summary and close

*Dr Leonie Penna
Chief Medical Officer, KCH*